Light Up the Square 2019

Presented by Amacon Construction Ltd.

Celebration Square (/venu/celebration-square)

Let it Glow at Celebration Square as we kick-off the winter season on November 23. It's time to lace up your skates and hit the ice for the official opening of the rink, and celebrate the wonder of the holiday season as we illuminate the Square with the Christmas Tree Lighting with Members of Mississauga Council.

Hosted by Global News Anchor Farah Nasser and Celebration Square Emcee's Mariah and Selena Jasmine.

Catch The Big Sound live in concert on the main stage, this 25+ piece orchestra creates unforgettable Motown experience, with a holiday twist. Live performances at 6 pm & 7:30 pm.

City night's never looked so bright with interactive light programming:

- All the way from Quebec check out the Atraktiv Musical Bikes, interactive illuminated musical bikes, when played together create a song, a sight to see, but even more fun with friends.
- Snap a photo as you swing the night away on the LED Glow Swings
- Get creative with a giant 8ft Light Brite Wall

Kids can explore the Little Borealis with glowing snow domes:

- Be wowed by the Pop up Planetarium; see the northern lights in a 360 degree theatre
- Snap a photo at the Let it Snow Selfie Stop with your friends from Frozen
- Visit Santa's Cabin to snap a photo with Old St. Nick and his elves

Stay cozy on the Square with places for you to chill and warm up:

- Take a break with family and friends in the Glow Lounge presented by TD Canada Trust
- Stop by the Enbridge Cozy Dome and the Rec Room Geodome to play giant Jenga or warm up after your skate
- Grab a bite from our Gourmet Food Trucks serving up your Canadian winter favourites
- Stop by The Cabin's heated patio or to rent skates

Here's what's hot

(/event/small-arms-inspection-building/toronto-biennial-art)

The Toronto Biennial of Art is a 72-day, free art exhibition located at 10 sites along the waterfront. The Small Arms Inspection Building will present works by 13 international artists and provide interactive experiences that include workshops, artist talks, community gatherings and explorative walks

(/event/small-arms-inspection-building/new-youth-council)

The New Youth Council welcomes all Mississauga youth between the ages of 15 and 21 to participate in weekly creative workshops at the Small Arms Inspection Building. Held during the Toronto Biennial of Art, youth will have opportunities to work on creative projects, meet artists and curators, and go on off-site trips

(/event/bradley-museum/home-holidays)

Celebrate the festive holiday season at the Bradley Museum! Learn about the past Christmas traditions of early settlers in the 1800s and enjoy the many ways communities in Mississauga celebrate holidays at this time of year.
